

National Coach 2015 - 2017 for the Australian Youth and Adult Climbing team:

Sport Climbing Australia is seeking 2 qualified candidates for the role of National Coach and Assistant coach to the Australian youth and adult climbing team. This is a volunteer position involving the training and guidance in lead and boulder for international competition for the 3 year period, 2015 - 2017 calendar years.

The National coach and Assistant coach will work together with the state coaches to ensure that climbers from each state have the best possible run up to the world youth championships and other international events, in the open and youth categories.

National Coach:

The National Coach is responsible for the overall administration of the program (in youth and open); gathering input from, and giving direction to, the team officials (assistant and state coaches); team building; all team logistics; all technical and training components; and, supervising all athletes during training camps, WYCH and other international events in open and youth categories (where possible).

Assistant Coach:

The Assistant coach is responsible for: assisting in the coordination of the training program (in youth and open) for all athletes (lead and boulder), preparation and supervision of all athletes during the WYCH, training camps and other international events in open and youth categories (where possible).

The National coach and assistant coach report directly to the Sport Climbing Australia Board. Subsequently, the National climbing coach and Assistant coach are not eligible for a place on the board so long as they hold the role of National or Assistant coach to the Australian climbing team.
