

SPORT CLIMBING AUSTRALIA ANTI-DOPING EDUCATION PLAN

LAST UPDATED NOVEMBER 2017

Overview

This document provides a simple overview of what steps will be taken by Sport Climbing Australia and ASADA to educate athletes about their anti-doping rights and responsibilities.

ASADA is tasked to support, encourage, develop and implement initiatives that increase the skills and knowledge of people involved in sporting activities about anti-doping matters.

Sport Climbing Australia is the peak body for the sport of Climbing in Australia. As such, they are best placed and have responsibility for ensuring all of their athletes are educated on anti-doping matters.

By working together, Sport Climbing Australia and ASADA aim to ensure all members, particularly those in the high performance pathway, have access to consistently high quality anti-doping education.

Sport Climbing Australia Anti-Doping Education Plan

Taking into consideration the structure of the sport, staffing resources available, and the support and services provided by ASADA, Sport Climbing Australia plans to undertake the following activities in order to educate its members about anti-doping issues:

Audience	Activity	Target
National Teams (International)	ASADA eLearning: mandate all members (including support personnel) of any team representing Australia to complete level 1 and 2 online certification before departure. Face to face: Where appropriate, Sport Climbing Australia will present relevant anti-doping information in a face to face environment as a follow up to the information gained online. Individual interface: When needed, Sport Climbing Australia will follow up providing specific information or upskilling to individual athletes	100% of members hold current level 2 certificates.
National Teams (Continental)	ASADA eLearning: all athletes and attending coaches selected to a team, will complete level 1 online	100% of members hold level 1 certificates.

	Face to face: Sport Climbing Australia will present at all High Performance training camps
State Programs	ASADA eLearning: All state programs and underpinning squads will be requested to complete minimum level 1 certification.
Staff and Board Members	ASADA eLearning: mandate all staff members and current board members to have completed both level 1 and 2 online	100% of staff and Board members hold level 2 certificates.
National Event Participants	Sport Climbing Australia will ensure that all entrants in any national level event are aware of the possibility of doping control being conducted, and will ensure sufficient information is available to competitors on their rights and responsibilities. Offer educational opportunities as an option for athletes and support personnel to attend. Where ASADA resources permit – conduct awareness raising initiatives via Sport Climbing Australia national events <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Outreach education stand • National Junior Medallists program
Sport Specific Resources	Sport Climbing Australia continues to look for opportunities to create sport specific resources (either alone, or in conjunction with ASADA) – in order to achieve the best possible education and awareness outcomes. Sport Climbing Australia has participated in ASADA ethical decision making workshop, and subsequently adapted the program to suit their sport. Sport Climbing Australia will continue to look for opportunities to present this workshop or other values based education.

ASADA's Commitment

ASADA will:

- Partner with Sport Climbing Australia to develop an anti-doping education program that meets their needs.
- Design, develop and provide accessible anti-doping education solutions.
- Ensure that the content is correct and adequate as well as provide reports and verification of participation.
- Develop or fund development of e-learning, to ensure consistency.
- Report on the progress of athletes in the online learning system.

Evaluation and reporting

ASADA will report back to Sport Climbing Australia as requested regarding the number of members from their sport using the ASADA eLearning system.

Sport Climbing Australia commits to ensure that records of attendance at any workshops or presentations conducted by the sport will be collected and forwarded to ASADA for filing.

ASADA and Sport Climbing Australia will discuss annually the education conducted in the previous twelve months, identifying areas for improvement and re-planning for the next year.

Sport Climbing Australia will assist ASADA's monitoring of the satisfaction and effectiveness of education programs by responding to ASADA's annual stakeholder survey as well as encouraging their athletes and members to do the same.

Education Resources

Following is a list of education products and services which are available free of charge (Government Funded) to Sport Climbing Australia. The list is non-exhaustive and will be regularly updated as new services become available.

Resource

Summary

ASADA eLearning	ASADA's eLearning system designed to provide participants with the opportunity to learn about core anti-doping topics. Athletes and support personnel can access a range of training courses and tests.
Train the Trainer workshop	ASADA will be implementing train the trainer workshops suitable for those wishing to facilitate anti-doping sessions in their sport. Invitations will be sent to NSO's when sessions are being planned.
Social Media	Aside from the ASADA website (www.asada.gov.au) which provides core anti-doping information, athletes and other interested parties can stay up-to-date with anti-doping issues via ASADA's twitter and facebook pages.
Trade Stands	A highly visible education booth including anti-doping quizzes and prize giveaways. Most appropriate for large mass participation events and organised on application to ASADA.

Communication tools	A number of tools are available for NSO's to promote anti-doping including buttons/links for websites and print ready ads for publication.
